Mobilizing the Youth? Peripatetic Labor in India's New Service Economy

Carol Upadhyia

Professor, School of Social Sciences
National Institute of Advanced Studies (NIAS), Bangalore

In this seminar, Professor Upadhyia will trace the formation of an army of footloose workers catering to Bangalore's new service economy. By exploring how rural youth are mobilized to labor in corporate service industries such as retail, logistics, and hospitality, she will open up larger questions about new forms of work, changing aspirations, and the fractured pathways of social and spatial mobility in contemporary India.
