

CASI Seminar Series Fall 2024

Mandate 2024: The Possibilities and Limits of Competitive Welfarism

November 7 (12 pm)

Yamini Aiyar

(Visiting Senior Fellow, Saxena Center for Contemporary South Asia, Brown University)
In partnership with the South Asia Center, Political Science Dept & PDRI-DevLab

Yamini Aiyar is a Visiting Senior Fellow at the Saxena Center for Contemporary South Asia, Brown University. From 2017-24, she was the President and Chief Executive of the Centre for Policy Research (CPR), a leading public policy research think tank in New Delhi. Her work sits at the intersection of research and policy practice and her research interests span the fields of contemporary politics, state capacity, social policy, federalism, and India's political economy. She sits on a number of boards and advisory committees of research centers and non-profits, and her policy commitments include Commissioner and Chair, Governance Working Group, Lancet Commission on Reimagining India's Health System; Member, United Nations Committee of the Experts on Public Administration; Council Member, United Nations University, Member, Chief Minister's Rajasthan Economic Transformation Advisory Council (2022-23). She has published widely both in academic and current affairs journals and newspapers including The Economist, Foreign Affairs, The Indian Express, and The Hindu. She has a regular column in Hindustan Times and Deccan Herald, two leading mainstream newspapers in India. Her forthcoming book, Lessons in State Capacity, will be published in October 2024 by Oxford University Press.

133 South 36th Street (Suite 230)
Philadelphia, PA 19104
Light refreshments will be served